

EAST FARNDON PARISH COUNCIL PUBLICATION SCHEME

It is a duty for parishes, under the Freedom of Information Act, to publish information to the public. East Farndon Parish Council adopted the Publication Scheme Policy at its meeting held on 9 March 2021 and it will be reviewed and updated every three years.

We are committed to making information available to the public as part of our normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below, where this information is held by us. Our scheme for publishing information (either in print or on the web) commits us:

- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
- To specify the information which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme.
- To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
- To review and update on a regular basis the information the authority makes available under this scheme.
- To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available.
- To make this publication scheme available to the public.

The classes of information will not generally include:

- Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure.
- Information in draft form.
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.
- All commercially sensitive information e.g. quotations, tenders, loan documentation and insurance policies.

In accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the scheme specifies the classes of information as detailed below. Excluded throughout the scheme is general correspondence sent or received by councils and all information relating to private individuals by virtue of it being personal data under the Data Protection Act 2018 and General Data Protection Regulation.

The vast majority of information is available via the Parish Council's website at <https://eastfarndon.org/parish-council/>.
